Faith-Based Intervention

TO PROMOTE HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS THROUGH CHANGING BELIEFS
AND BEHAVIORS THAT HAVE SUPPORTED CONTROL AND ABUSE

October 19-23, 2020

Hosted by:
Rockford Rescue Mission
715 W State St.
Rockford, IL 61102

ManKind Facilitator training is composed of two components. One 5-day, in-person training retreat and a 5-week online training curriculum thereafter.

- ManKind is an abuse intervention program co-led by both a male and female leader
- Designed to help men understand controlling & abusive behaviors and change beliefs and behaviors to ones that promote healthy relationships
- Motivated participants have a recidivism rate of only 5% compared to the much larger national average

Overheard...

As a licensed counselor attending the Mankind training, the hidden motives and dynamics of abusive relationships were revealed and gave me the tools and skills to assist clients identify life-changing beliefs and pro-social behaviors. As a facilitator, I have the joy of witnessing the miracle of hearts being exposed to truth and watching the transformation of men become who they were created to be. Facilitating Mankind groups is an everyday opportunity to see that it is truth that sets us free. -J.D.

I am grateful for the Mankind Training because it helped me to gain some new perspectives on my relationships with topics like the dynamics of power and control, learning how serving is to love like Jesus, and accountability and much more. Its pretty cool to gain what I thought was tools for others but now also knowing some of the tools are for me too. ManKind truly benefits both the facilitator and the client. -J.W.
